Re: United States v. Moshe Benenfeld
18 CR 485 (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska:

I realize that I may be "pushing the envelope" with this application for one additional week beyond the Court's recently rescheduled January 23rd self-surrender date, for which I am thankful, until January 30th. Nevertheless, I feel compelled to make this motion because, as I advised in my first letter motion on December 23rd, Mr. Benenfeld has a scheduled procedure for January 27th which his gastroenterologist considers very important in assuring that he is not unduly prone to communicable infections after he self-surrenders, either as the recipient or as the conveyer.

An additional week will allow this procedure to be performed and a medical evaluation to be made for any follow-up course of treatment or change in medications in time to be communicated to the medical personnel in the medical facility where my client is to self-surrender.

I thank Your Honor, once again, for your consideration and convey my best wishes for a happy and healthy New year.

Respectfully submitted,

Ephraim Savitt, Esq.

Attorney for Defendant

Moshe Benenfeld

SO ORDERED.
